

Passenger Transport Information and Compliance Service 2016

KEEPING YOU ON THE ROAD TO COMPLIANCE

With regularly changing legislation, tightening safety regulations and increased enforcement it is vital, whether you operate one vehicle or a large fleet, that you ensure your operation complies with the laws governing the passenger transport industry.

The Passenger Transport Information and Compliance Service (PTICS) subscription has been specifically designed to provide information and support on what you need to do to stay compliant and how and when you can achieve this.

Why subscribe to PTICS?

Knowledge

You can access our extensive information base at any time to ensure you are best placed to ensure compliance, make good business decisions, keep on top of legal developments and increase your knowledge.

Compliance

Be confident in your compliance with our support and guidance that is tailored to your operation. Our experts can help you unravel complicated legal policies, explain how they relate to your operation and advise on putting measures in place.

Efficiency

Save time with all the information you need in one place. Our clear implementation advice also helps you save time on planning.

Savings

Cut costs through minimising business risk, eliminating the cost of third party solicitors or consultants for advice and gaining discounts on other FTA products and services.

Is PTICS relevant to me?

PTICS has been specifically developed for all PCV operators and is relevant to performance and compliance managers, administrators and fleet engineers. This subscription service is a valuable source of information for major passenger organisations, small bus and coach operators, local authorities and contract organisations.

What does my subscription include?

PTICS guide

This regularly updated loose leaf A4 folder covers all the areas you may need to comply with current transport legislation and details frequently asked questions and best practice tips to give you peace of mind when running your passenger transport operation.

Sections include the following:

- Operator licensing
- Road traffic rules
- Records of hours
- Permits
- Conduct
- Driver licensing
- Service registration
- Special needs
- Maintenance and testing
- Funding and competition
- Construction and equipment
- Useful contacts
- Drivers' hours
- Vehicle Excise Duty and registration
- Passenger Driver CPC

In addition you receive a vehicle maintenance year planner, which allows you to see at a glance all of your vehicles and identify when each of them will need a safety inspection, preventative maintenance inspection, annual test preparation and road fund licence renewal.

Compliance Advice Centre

Telephone[†] and email access to our team of transport compliance experts, available from 9am-5pm, Monday to Friday. Our advisors are fully trained in all aspects of transport legislation, and are on hand to answer any legal or operational queries you may have.

[†] Calls are charged at the standard national rate

Compliance website

This dedicated website provides all the information contained within the folder, and more, and is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The easy-to-navigate sections within the site include frequently asked questions and archive copies of email news updates. Also available to download are a range of tools such as sample letters, forms and memos to help in the management of your passenger transport operation.

e-services

Exclusive to PTICS subscribers is a range of specifically designed e-services to ensure that you are kept up-to-date with any change or potential change to legislation.

These services include:

- email news bulletins sent out to ensure you are kept up-to-date with relevant changes or potential changes to current or forthcoming legislation
- a free Online Supplier Directory for members to list their business and free to search for others
- a Twitter feed and Facebook page to keep you up-to-the-minute with FTA developments and industry news
- traffic and weather alert updates

Regional member briefings

Held at venues nationwide, FTA hosts twice-yearly briefing sessions delivered by industry experts which focus on key legislative changes and topical issues affecting the transport industry. Places are free to all FTA members and delegates receive a pack featuring the latest compliance information.
