

Getting and Keeping Your Operator's Licence

Who should attend

This course is designed for those that have a responsibility for ensuring compliance with operator licensing requirements.

Key benefits

This course provides a comprehensive teaching of the operator licensing system and how to achieve and maintain compliance with all legislative and legal requirements.

Course content

- O licence procedures and application
- Reviews under continuous licensing
- Varying the licence
- The requirements for professional competence
- Good repute and financial standing
- Environmental requirements
- Representations and objections
- Environmental considerations
- Case study – a public inquiry
- Maintenance arrangements
- The DfT guidelines
- Frequency of maintenance
- Operator Compliance Risk Score (OCRS)
- Understanding the requirements and implementing record keeping
- Enforcement
- OCRS

Course duration

1 day

Non-residential course

Venue	Dates
Leamington Spa	15 January	11 June	17 September
Tunbridge Wells	17 January	12 June
Bristol	17 April	9 October
Milton Keynes	17 July	21 October

Price

£305 + VAT

This price includes tuition, course notes, certification, lunch and refreshments.

"This is an essential course for anyone that has responsibility for ensuring compliance with operator licensing requirements."

Ian Yardley, Logistics Manager; R & C Williams Ltd

