

National Passenger CPC (UNITS 1, 3 AND 5)

Who should attend

All holders of Standard National Passenger operator licences are required to be professionally competent, or employ someone who is professionally competent. The most popular method of demonstrating this is to hold a National Passenger Certificate of Professional Competence (CPC).

Course content

- Drivers' hours and record keeping
- Schedules and duties
- Drivers' licences
- Speed limits
- Weights and dimensions
- The design of pcvs and different types
- Construction and use (including minibuses)
- Pcv fitness rules
- Lighting
- Fares and pricing
- Vehicle excise duty
- Maintenance and annual test requirements
- Operator licensing
- Pcv costing, pricing and marketing
- Section 19 welfare and community vehicle and community bus permits
- Concessionary fare schemes
- Tendering
- Competition law
- Control and registration of local services
- Conduct of drivers and passengers
- On-board services
- Digital tachographs

Course duration

5 days

Residential course

Venue	Dates
Milton Keynes	11–15 February	19–23 May	18–22 August	10–14 November

Exam dates	7 March	6 June	5 September	5 December
------------	---------	--------	-------------	------------

Residential price

£1,170 + VAT

This price includes tuition, course materials and full board accommodation.

£73.70 no VAT – compulsory examination fee.

Please note this fee may be subject to change in September 2008. Please call 08717 11 22 22* for more information.

Non-residential course

Venue	Dates
Leamington Spa	25–29 February			24–28 November

Exam dates	7 March	6 June	5 September	5 December
------------	---------	--------	-------------	------------

Non-residential price

£745 + VAT

This price includes tuition, course materials, lunches and refreshments.

£73.70 no VAT – compulsory examination fee.

Please note this fee may be subject to change in September 2008. Please call 08717 11 22 22* for more information.

